

I am deeply troubled
by Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

It is a clear
example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Their plan to spread
"disinformation" is not in the interest
of enlightened
debate we so desperately need
now. And their plan
is possible, in a
meaningful way, only
because they own so
many stations.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. Please take steps to prevent such actions
in the future.

Thank you.
